

I am applying for the summer school. I feel that it is quite mandatory for me. But I do not have funding for the education. Because my institution does not cover abroad educational costs. In this case, I need subsidence travel (£235), and full package registration (£800). If this is not possible for your acceptance, I can pay some of the on my own upon negotiation.